MASJID UL HAQQ CLASS RULES & EXPECTATIONS

1. Proper Adab: Students are expected to speak respectfully to the instructor and classmates at all times.

2. Attendance: Students are expected to attend class consistently and in person at Masjid Ul Haqq, Baltimore, MD on the day and time of the class. To help you gain the most benefit from instruction, no more than two absences are permitted per term.

3. Participate: Students are expected to participate in class readings, recitations, and quizzes or tests when offered.

4. Homework: Students are expected to do their own homework, if assigned, and submit it when due.

5. Questions: Please ask questions to clear up any areas of instruction that are not clear, or are confusing. We welcome your questions.

6. Recording: Audio and video recording are strictly prohibited in class, unless approved by the instructor. We desire to protect the privacy of all who attend the class.

7. The Quran: The Quran is the sacred word of Allah. Please handle it with respect. Have ablution (wudu) when touching it. Place it above other printed materials. Do not place it on the floor; and never take it into unclean places (e.g. bathroom).

8. Phone: Please mute your phone upon entering class. If you must speak to the caller, quietly exit the class to do so.

9. Eating: No eating in class.
